Essential Eligibility Criteria

Fort Loudoun State Park

Homeschool Days

Program participants should be able to do the following, independently or with the assistance of a companion or adaptive equipment:

· Tolerate exposure to loud noises such as cannon fire, musket fire, blacksmithing , and other tool and weapon noises associated with historic reenactments.
· Tolerate exposure to smoke, fire, and heat generated by cannon fire, musket demonstrations, blacksmith forges, and campfires.
· Move through grassy, uneven, and potentially muddy terrain in and around the fort grounds, including gradual inclines and declines, for up to 1.5 hours.
· Stand and move through historical settings with minimal seating available for extended periods.
· Navigate areas with fluctuating light levels such as tents, indoor spaces without electricity where lighting may be dim or vary based on the time of day.
· Understand and follow verbal directions and safety instructions provided by reenactment staff to avoid and/or manage potential risks.
· Perform self-care in a natural environment without access to electricity and/or running water, including maintaining nutrition and hydration, personal hygiene, and managing existing medical conditions.

Should you need additional assistance to participate,
please contact the park or visit our website.

TENNESSEE State Parks